

MELON CROP IS IN FULL SWING

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
EL CENTRO, Calif., June 28.—The cantaloupe season for Imperial valley now is in full swing and the melons are being shipped to all parts of the United States and Canada. Figures just made public by the El Centro representatives of the United States Bureau of Markets show New York is consuming 25 carloads a day of 50,000 cantaloupes. San Francisco is buying six carloads daily and Los Angeles ten.

The valley's acreage of 14,000 is the largest cantaloupe growing district in the country. This year's crop is estimated will be fully 6,000 carloads, or one-third of the entire production of the United States.

SHELLS DID NOT FEAZE CHINK

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
PHOENIX, Ariz., June 28.—The taking of good biscuits for his comrades in the firing line was a matter of more importance to Tin Him, Chinese cook for Battery A of the 4th field artillery, than the bursting of any number of German shells about the dugout in which he pursued his culinary way. Tin worked at a Phoenix restaurant before he left to war.

This is the story of the members of the battery, who have just arrived from the battle zone.

One day, say the artillermen, a shell exploded at the mouth of Tin His dugout, but the cook still came for biscuit dough. A second and a third followed in its wake, and an artillerist stuck his head through the door.

"Get out of there, you fool," yelled the sight of guns. "Don't you know we're gonna have the range?"

"Whazzam?" queried Tin Him in reply. "I gotta bakem biskit."

And he did.

Women That Men Like.
"What we men want for the most part," says Thackeray, "is a humble, flattering, smiling, child-loving, tea-making being who laughs at our jokes, however old they may be, coaxed and wheedles us in our humors and fondly lies to us through life. In other words, the more essentially feminine woman is, the more irresistibly does she appeal to and attract our sex."

Sailing the matrimonial sea might not be so difficult if you weren't always running into the礁es.
